FOR BRYAN AND SILVER

New York, October 8. — United States Senator James K. Jones of Arkansas, chairman of the National Democratic Committee, and wife, were passengers on the Cunard liner Lucania that reached New York city today.

Senator Jones, when asked to give his views on the political situation, said that owing to his long absence abroad he was not as fully informed as to political conditions as he hoped to be in a few weeks. When asked his opinion as to the probability of the Democratic nomination for the Presidency to W. J. Bryan, he said:

"There is no doubt that Bryan will receive the Democratic nomination for President. Has anybody any doubt on that question?
Bryan is sure to win."

On the attitude of Richard Croker as to the nomination of Bryan for President, Senator Jones had little to say, merely replying to a direct question, "Croker is already in line."

As to the possible outcome of the National campaign of 1900, Senator Jones said he believed that the free silver idea would have a greater following than in the campaign of 1896. He based this assertion on the fact that the Democratic party would receive support in 1900 from a new source.

"In 1896," he said, "many Republicans and others believed that when the Republican party declared for bimetalism the declaration was made in all sincerity.
These men now doubt the sincerity of that plank of the Republican platform."

CLAY CLEMENT COMPANY.

The Clay Clement Co. presented "Caste" in a very clever manner at the Opera House last evening.
Clay Clement himself taking the part of Eccles, the drunken father of Polly and Esther Eccles, two very charming young ladies. Mrs.
Clement took the latter and Miss Foltz the former part.

Clay Clement is certainly a versatile actor for he plays the part of a drunkard every bit as well as a Southern gentleman or a German aristocrat. Miss Foltz is always extremely pleasing on the stage, keeping the audience continually in a humor bordering on pleasant smiles.

Mrs. Clement was extremely good as Esther Eccles, the tragedy of the part showing wherein lies her greatest fort. Ed M. Bell as Hon. George D'Alroy and H.
G. Lonsdale as Samuel Gerridge were also excellently done.

Tonight the Clay Clement Co. will play the "Mountebank," a play that is very well worth seeing and one that has made a great reputation for Clay Clement.

"A Heart as Sturdy as an Oak."

But what about the blood which the heart must pump at the rate of 70 times a minute? If the heart is to be sturdy and the nerves strong this blood must be rich and pure. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes sturdy hearts because it makes good blood. It gives to men and women strength, confidence, courage and endurance.

Hood's Pills are non-irritating and the only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Seattle" is more often heard than anything else. The Criterion Saloon have the beer on tap or in
